We have now come to the revelation of the Doctrine of Christ for the New Birth, concerning the Father and Son. What happens to those believers in our own group that did not know about the Doctrine of Christ for the New Birth and have passed away? Where do they end up?

Can we have people in our group that are following the Doctrine of Christ but are not born again?

Can someone believe/understand the Doctrine of Christ but not believe/understand the Doctrine of Godliness or believe/understand the Doctrine of Godliness and not believe/understand the Doctrine of Christ ?

Also I elaborate on the purpose of the Doctrine of Christ, which is for new birth and the Doctrine of Godliness.

What happens to people that believed / understood the Doctrine of Christ (Godhead) but left the church? They did deny the Doctrine of Christ but they left nevertheless?
Were they born again?
