

The impact of the Fallen Mind on Marriage, Family, Society and Churches

DEUTERONOMY 6:1 Now these are the commandments, the statutes, and the judgments, which the LORD your God commanded to teach you, that ye might do them in the land whither ye go to possess it: 2 That thou mightest fear the LORD thy God, to keep all his statutes and his commandments, which I command thee, thou, and thy son, and thy son's son, all the days of thy life; and that thy days may be prolonged.

When Eve used her free will and stepped away from God's Word, she opened a door. That door brought fear, worry, and anxiety into the human mind. As the conscious mind (human reasoning) took over, Satan was able to build his own world system, which the prophet calls "Satan's Eden". This fallen system is designed to destroy the very foundations God set up: the family, marriage, society, and the church.

The Impact on Marriage and the Family

1. In the home, the devil does not always attack with giant disasters. Instead, he sneaks in through daily stress, exhaustion, and neglect. When a husband and wife are too tired from the world's busy system, they neglect each other, stopping all meaningful communication. This neglect opens the vacuum for the devil to step in.
2. Satan also destroys the home through murmuring and complaining. When a husband or wife constantly complains, they are showing unbelief. The prophet taught that when the children of Israel grumbled in the wilderness at Meribah, God cut off their water supply. When we complain, our marriages dry up spiritually. Even worse, fussing and complaining is like hanging a welcome sign for the devil. The prophet warned that murmuring about your conditions invites the "serpent" into your house to bite you with venom & strife.
3. A nagging wife or a complaining husband destroys the peace, making the house feel like a desert.
4. The fallen mind also perverts sacred roles. God made the husband the head of the home to reflect Christ's sacrificial love. But the fallen mind twists this into the "Nicolaitan spirit," where the husband becomes a dictator. If a man uses his headship as a license to be selfish, demanding his own way and denying his wife the things she loves, that is spiritual abuse. On the other hand, modern society programs women to abandon their natural motherhood instincts to chase worldly careers and independence, breaking the family structure entirely.

The Impact on Society and the Churches

1. Since the human mind is fallen, society's standards of success have become completely corrupt. The world tells our youth that they are only valuable if they have prestigious education, good looks, or money.
2. This same deception has invaded the churches. Instead of looking for the true revelation of the Word, fallen minds seek outward emotional displays like jumping, shouting, or speaking in tongues as proof of salvation.
3. Satan uses false teachers to bring in the "doctrine of Balaam." This is a spirit of false unity that tells everyone, "We are all the same, let's just unite," regardless of what the Bible says. This leads to the creation of massive, corrupt religious systems like the World Council of Churches. By mingling truth with error, Satan deceives the church world into worshipping him without them even knowing it.

E-78 Then the first thing you know, they got down into the desert. And what taken place then. There they was out there murmuring around, and God cut off the water supply. That's the reason today the church is getting so dry and everything: murmuring, complaining, and fussing, and stewing, and one saying, "Oh, bless God, I belong to the Assemblies; that's the biggest."

Escaping Satan's Eden: Reclaiming our Families and our Minds

Let's look at the greatest battlefield in the entire world. It is not a physical war fought with tanks, guns, or airplanes. Instead, it is a war taking place entirely inside your own head. We are living in a time that the prophet called "Satan's Eden". The devil is working overtime to program the minds of our families, but God has given us the tools to fight back and win. We must understand how the enemy works, how the digital age has divided our families, and how we can protect our homes.

The Prophesied Generation

The Bible perfectly describes the age we are living in right now. God warned us about a rebellious generation that would lose its respect and its moral compass.

PROVERBS 30:11-17 (ASV) "There is a generation that curse their father, And bless not their mother. There is a generation that are pure in their own eyes, And yet are not washed from their filthiness. There is a generation, oh how lofty are their eyes! And their eyelids are lifted up. There is a generation whose teeth are as swords, and their jaw teeth as knives, To devour the poor from off the earth, and the needy from among men. The horseleach hath two daughters, crying, Give, give. There are three things that are never satisfied, Yea, four that say not, Enough: Sheol; and the barren womb; The earth that is not satisfied with water; And the fire that saith not, Enough. The eye that mocketh at his father, And despiseth to obey his mother, The ravens of the valley shall pick it out, And the young eagles shall eat it".

This passage shows exactly how the enemy is targeting our youth today. We see a generation that disrespects their parents, proving they have no fear of God. But the real tragedy is the deep spiritual trickery. The scripture says they are "pure in their own eyes". Young people today look at social media to figure out what makes a "good person." They measure themselves by the world's standards and think they are doing just fine. They think they are perfect, but God looks at them and sees that they need to be washed clean from their filthiness by the Word of God.

The Apostle Paul also warned us about this exact time.

2 TIMOTHY 3:1-5 (ASV) "But know this, that in the last days grievous times shall come. For men shall be lovers of self, lovers of money, boastful, haughty, railers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy, without natural affection, implacable, slanderers, without self-control, fierce, no lovers of good, traitors, headstrong, puffed up, lovers of pleasure rather than lovers of God; holding a form of godliness, but having denied the power thereof: from these also turn away".

The Digital Divide and Satan's Traps

How did things get this bad? It did not happen by accident. Around the year 2010, the launch of smartphones and image-based social media platforms like Instagram changed everything. This created a huge "digital divide" between parents and their children. Satan uses this digital world to build his Eden. He sneaks in through the screens we stare at every single day. What the world calls innocent entertainment is often a trap. For example, Hollywood movies constantly give animals human traits. This is a sneaky trick to break down human modesty. It trains young minds to act on basic animal instincts like running in gangs or demanding blind loyalty; instead of acting with basic human decency.

Furthermore, young women are being influenced to neglect the sacredness of their bodies. God designed women with a natural instinct to blush and feel shame when uncovered, but the modern world has stripped this away. Today, modesty is forgotten, and people ignore the truth that a woman's body represents the church and is meant to be kept sacred. Social media is also designed to keep your mind completely "earthbound". By constantly showing you what is "cool" or beautiful, the enemy plants insecurities and worldly desires into your subconscious. Researchers noticed that after social media became popular, there was a massive jump in anxiety and depression among teens. Because teens are constantly comparing their real lives to the "highlight reels" of millions of other people online, they feel deeply insecure. Experts even call this the "Strawberry Generation": young people who look great on the outside but get easily "bruised" or upset by everyday stress.

Parenting Paradigms: The Great Shift (1980 to Present)

TRADITIONAL PARENTING (PRE-1980)

Autonomy Through Natural Growth

Children experienced high relative autonomy and unsupervised play, fostering antifragility and conflict-resolution skills.

The "Village" Support System

Raising children was a communal effort involving extended families and neighbors before geographic mobility increased.

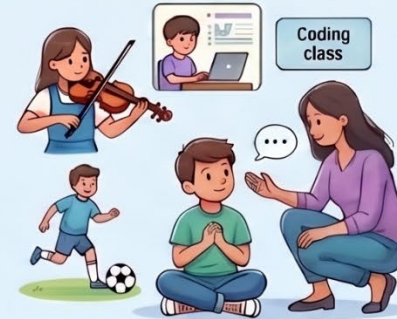

Focus on Character and Obedience

Prioritized physical discipline, basic manners, and respect for authority as primary child outcomes.

MODERN "OPTIMIZATION" PARENTING (POST-1980)

Concerted Cultivation

A child-centered approach viewing children as projects requiring relentless extracurricular schedules and emotional coaching.

The Rise of "Safetyism"

Expanded the definition of safety to include protection from emotional distress and uncomfortable ideas.

COMPARISON OF CONCERNS & OUTCOMES

FEATURE	PRE-1980 (TRADITIONAL)	POST-1980 (MODERN)
Primary Concern	Physical discipline & obedience	Emotional safety & academic optimization
Supervision Level	Low; Latchkey independence	Hyper-vigilant; Helicopter monitoring
Child Outcome	Resilience & Self-reliance	Social anxiety & Delayed independence

The Cost of Intensive Parenting

Average South African middle-class child-rearing costs, illustrative estimate over 18 years, excluding private university or global travel expenses.

A Warning to the Church: The Need for Desperation

Because of this constant digital noise, both young people and adults are distracted. Our brains are trapped in what scientists call the "Beta" state a fast, noisy, highly stressed state that completely blocks out deep spiritual reflection. Because we are so distracted, the church has lost its fire. We must listen to the words of the prophet, Brother William Branham, who warned us about losing our passion for God.

630901 DESPERATIONS

"We know it is true that God will meet a desperate soul. Now, we all know that. But it usually takes something to drive us into that, to that despair, to the desperation. It takes something to do it.

But the church has held on to our religious rhetoric and so called talking about the Message, until its become so passive, that they don't do anything, they just go through the motions of going to church and perhaps talking the Word, if they do that any more. But we've talked so much we've lost our passion, we've lost our reality, we've lost our fire for God in our belly and in our hearts. Did you know that all true passion is born out of desperation and anguish. And true passion for Christ comes out of your being immersed in desperation and anguish. Search the Scriptures and you'll find when God set His heart to save his people from a ruinous situation, He would share His own anguish for what God saw happening to His church and to His people. He would find a praying man, and He would take that man and literally baptize Him in anguish. We need that true passion again! We cannot just go through the motions while our families are pulled apart by screens and worldly programming.

A Charge to the Parents

Parents, this battle starts with you. You are called to be the spiritual priests of your homes. The digital age has caused many parents to become just as distracted as the youth. Studies show that mothers who spend nearly three hours a day on social media talk to their children 29% less during playtime even when their phones are physically put away.

We must also stop falling for a modern trend called "safetyism". This means well-meaning parents try to protect their kids from any emotional discomfort or difficult challenge. These "snowplow parents" clear every obstacle out of the way, which means their kids never learn how to handle failure. The Bible tells us that children have a fallen nature that leans toward disobedience. You must let them face the consequences of their actions, or they will never learn true obedience.

Also, be careful of "therapy speak". Social media has taught teens clinical buzzwords like "toxic" and "gaslighting". Instead of working through normal family arguments, kids use these words to label a family member and shut down the conversation. Instead of using labels, families need to slow down, practice active listening, and talk through their real feelings with empathy.

RECLAIMING THE MIND: NAVIGATING SATAN'S EDEN

THE "STRAWBERRY GENERATION" CRISIS

THE BATTLE PLAN: RECLAIMING YOUR MIND

PROTECT THE "THETA STATE" WINDOWS

Avoid social media during the first and last moments of the day.

RESTORE THE SPIRITUAL PRIESTHOOD

Parents must teach the Word daily and guide children toward their God-given talents.

THE PHILIPPIANS 4:8 FILTER

Intentionally scroll past any content that isn't pure, lovely, or of good report.

God commands parents in Deuteronomy 6 to teach His Word constantly. This means talking about the Bible on the drive home from church while the message is still fresh in your children's minds.

Do not force your kids to chase after the world's definition of success, like getting prestigious degrees and making lots of money. Instead, find out what God naturally gifted your children to do, and guide their unique talents into a path that God will bless.

Your Battle Plan: Reclaiming Your Mind

Here is the amazing hope: you do not have to be a victim of this programming! You can build a strong spiritual immune system that the enemy cannot hack. Here are five daily habits to help you and your family fight back:

1. Reprogram your mind with the Word by Casting Down

Imaginations. You cannot stop bad thoughts from flying by, but you can stop them from building a nest in your head.

2 CORINTHIANS 10:3-7 (KJV) "For though we walk in the flesh, we do not war after the flesh: (For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but mighty through God to the pulling down of strong holds;) Casting down imaginations, and every high thing that exalteth itself against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ; And having in a readiness to revenge all disobedience, when your obedience is fulfilled. Do ye look on things after the outward appearance? If any man trust to himself that he is Christ's, let him of himself think this again, that, as he is Christ's, even so are we Christ's".

When a toxic thought or a scary news story comes, hit the delete button in your mind and immediately replace it with God's truth.

2. Protect Your "Theta State" Windows.

Every morning when you wake up, and every night right before you fall asleep, your brain slows down into a relaxed zone called the "Alpha and Theta states". This is when your mind is most open to being programmed.

Do not look at social media or the news during these times! Instead, follow the example of King David and use these quiet moments to take deep breaths and meditate on God's promises.

3. Use the Philippians 4:8 Filter. You do not have to absorb everything you see online. L

PHILIPPIANS 4:8 "Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things".

If a post or video does not pass this test, quickly scroll past it. Tell yourself, "I don't want to hear it," so you do not waste your mind on the world's toxic garbage.

4. Speak Your Confession Out Loud.

Faith in your subconscious mind needs to be spoken out loud. Do not just read the Bible silently. Pray and speak God's Word out loud! Doing this anoints your mind and brings God's power to life.

5. Unplug and Create Device-Free Zones.

You need to step away from the digital noise. Take a walk outside or sit quietly to shift your brain into a peaceful state so you can hear from God. At home, families should create device-free zones, like during meals or playtime. Sometimes, you can also share screen time together, like watching a good show as a family, which can spark positive conversations.

Surrender Your Will

Church, the world tells you that ultimate freedom is doing whatever you want. Social media says your main goal should be to please yourself. But the attitude of a true believer is realizing that your own "free will" is a trap.

True freedom is looking at God and saying, "Not my will, but Your will be done".

Let us wash our minds with the Word. Let us protect our children, unplug from Satan's Eden, and get back our passion for the Lord.

Neglecting the Truth

The current generation of children and young people are living in an age referred to as "Satan's Eden," where they are being systematically programmed to neglect the divine truths of God's Word.

Rather than embracing the spiritual roles and responsibilities established by God, the youth are yielding to a modern culture that actively fights against biblical headship, respect for authority, and the sanctity of the family.

1. The Prophesied Generation of Disrespect

The scriptures explicitly warn about the attitude of the youth in this hour.

Proverbs 30:11 identifies "a generation that curseth their father, and doth not bless their mother".

By neglecting the basic command to honour and respect their parents, young people demonstrate that they have absolutely no fear of God. If children are not respectful to their parents, they will inevitably have no respect for the law or for judges, leading to a rebellious generation of total disrespect. Furthermore, this generation is described as being "disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy, without natural affection".

2 TIMOTHY 3 ASV 1 But know this, that in the last days grievous times shall come. 2 For men shall be lovers of self, lovers of money, boastful, haughty, railers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy, 3 without natural affection, implacable, slanderers, without self-control, fierce, no lovers of good, 4 traitors, headstrong, puffed up, lovers of pleasure rather than lovers of God; 5 holding a form of godliness, but having denied the power thereof: from these also turn away.

2. Pure in Their Own Eyes, But Spiritually Unwashed

Proverbs 30:12 describes a generation that is "pure in their own eyes, and yet is not washed from their filthiness".

Young people today often justify their own behaviours and consider themselves righteous or acceptable based on the world's standards. However, they neglect the true washing of the Word.

Because they reject the message of the hour, they remain filthy in God's eyes.

Their eyes are described as "lofty" and proud, and their words act as swords and knives to devour others.

3. The Tragedy of the "Foolish Son" When a young person neglects the teachings of their father and the Word of God, they become what the scripture calls a "foolish son."

A foolish son acts foolishly because he has not learned or caught the revelation of what he was taught, bringing grief, sorrow, and shame to his parents.

The scripture even notes that a foolish son "hates his mother".

When a child acts foolishly, it reflects poorly on their parents and makes God the Father look foolish by perverting the divine order.

4. Surrendering to the Programming of Satan's Eden Instead of seeking God's purpose, young people are conforming to a worldly system that bases success on economics, talent, and worldly education.

Modern culture programs them to believe that success is defined by obtaining a college degree and a prestigious job, telling them that without these, they are failures.

In pursuing this worldly independence, they neglect their God-given talents and natural abilities, ignoring that God desires to channel their specific creativity safely within His will.

Additionally, young people are neglecting human decency and taking on animalistic traits.

Hollywood and the media have given human qualities to animals, which has conditioned children's minds for bestiality and perversion.

As a result, many youth today operate on animal instinct, running in "packs" or gangs, fighting for territory and demanding blind loyalty to their group.

5. The Loss of Modesty and the Neglect of Sacred Roles Young women, in particular, are being heavily influenced by this age to neglect the sacredness of their bodies.

God designed women with a natural instinct to blush and feel shame when uncovered, but the erosion of human nature has stripped this away.

Today, a young woman can dress immodestly, reveal her flesh, and stare a man down without feeling any embarrassment.

They neglect the revelation that a woman's body represents the church and is meant to be kept sacred for one head, representing faithfulness to God.

In relationships, young people are acting foolishly by wasting their time with constant questioning, complaining, and insecurities ("do you love me, where were you..."), rather than using their time to be honorable, well-dressed, and respectful to their spouses or future spouses.

They neglect the reality that their bodies and their conduct are meant to reflect the mystery of Christ and the Church.

Ultimately, children and young people are neglecting the truth because they have allowed the world to reshape their desires.

Without the washing of the Word, their fallen nature completely aligns with the false doctrines of this age.

Satan is actively constructing "Satan's Eden" by deliberately reprogramming both the conscious and subconscious minds of all generations to rebel against God's divine order.

Because Satan cannot create, his ultimate tactic is to genetically engineer and pervert what God has already programmed so that he can produce a class of humans he can easily control and possess.

How Satan Programs the Young: Satan heavily targets the minds of children and youth through media and entertainment.

What the world often presents as innocent animated movies is actually a calculated plan to program children's minds for perversion, such as giving human qualities to animals to condition their minds for bestiality and animalistic behaviours.

Furthermore, Satan uses the modern educational and economic systems to dictate that success only comes through worldly degrees and prestigious careers.

This programming causes young people to neglect their specific God-given talents and channels their focus entirely into the world's system.

How Satan Programs the Old:

Adults are systematically programmed to abandon their God-given instincts and sacred roles.

Satan anoints modern culture to strip women and mothers of their natural nurturing instincts, convincing them to pursue worldly careers and independence instead of embracing biblical headship.

Adults are also subjected to intense social programming through books, movies, and education, which conditions society to accept perverted lifestyles as the "norm" while labeling those who hold to traditional biblical values as bigots or sexists.

Biological Programming Through the Environment: One of the most insidious ways Satan programs both the young and the old is through the physical environment, particularly the food supply.

By pushing humanity to consume hybrid foods, artificial hormones, steroids, and chemicals, Satan is systematically altering human biology and cellular DNA.

This physical perversion changes natural human cravings and actually strips away the natural instinct of modesty and shame.

Once the body's cells are weakened and desires are chemically altered, it becomes incredibly easy for Satan to market and sell his worldly system such as addictions, pornography, alcohol, and high-risk thrills to a desensitized population. We must turn our attention to a profound prophetic warning that perfectly describes the spirit of the age we are living in. If you look around at the world today, you will see a society that has completely lost its moral compass, a generation that is being actively programmed by Satan's Eden. The scripture we are focusing on today perfectly captures this condition: Proverbs 30:11-12.

The Word of God warns us in Proverbs 30:11, "There is a generation that curseth their father, and doth not bless their mother".

We are living right now in this exact prophesied generation. It is a rebellious generation marked by total disrespect. We must understand that God's divine order begins in the home. If children are not respectful to their own parents, they will inevitably have no respect for the law, for judges, or for any authority. When the basic command to honour father and mother is neglected, it proves that this generation has absolutely no fear of God at all. They have elevated their own "free will" and "rights" above the sacred roles and headship that God established.

But the tragedy of this generation does not stop at rebellion; it extends into deep spiritual deception.

Proverbs 30:12 continues, "There is a generation that are pure in their own eyes, and yet is not washed from their filthiness".

Think about the profound deception in this verse!

They are "pure in their own eyes." Young people today often justify their own behaviours and consider themselves righteous or acceptable, but they are using the world's corrupt standards as their measuring stick.

They look at themselves and say, "I am a good person, I am doing fine," but God looks at them and sees that they are not washed from their filthiness.

How does a person get washed from this spiritual filthiness?

You wash by the Word.

The true washing only comes by the washing of the water by the revealed Word of God for this hour.

If they would submit to the Word, the message would wash them clean.

But because this generation rejects the true message, they remain filthy in the eyes of God, no matter how "pure" they think they are.

Brethren, we cannot allow this spirit to infiltrate our homes.

A foolish son or a rebellious generation does not just happen by accident; it happens when the Word is neglected and when we fail to apply the washing of the Word.

We must bring our families back to the absolute authority of the Scriptures.

We must cast down the proud, lofty reasoning of this modern culture that tells our youth they are pure without the blood of Christ and without the correction of the Word.

Let us ensure our homes are sanctuaries where the Word of God washes our minds, purifies our thoughts, and restores the true fear of the Lord.

Proverbs 30:11-14, showing exactly how the enemy is targeting your generation today: There is a generation today that completely disrespects and curses their parents, showing they have absolutely no fear of or respect for authority. There is a generation that thinks they are perfect and "pure in their own eyes" because they measure themselves by social media standards, but in reality, they have not been washed clean from their own spiritual filthiness. There is a generation full of arrogant pride, walking around with lofty eyes and looking down on everyone else. There is a generation whose words are like swords and knives using their teeth to bully, cancel, and devour the weak and needy.

How the Enemy is Programming the Youth

How did the world get this way? It isn't an accident.

Satan is actively trying to build "Satan's Eden" by subconsciously programming your generation for destruction.

He knows that if he can control your mind, he can control your life. He doesn't usually attack with obvious evil.

Instead, he sneaks in through the screens you look at every day.

What the world presents to you as innocent entertainment, like Hollywood movies and social media trends, is actually a calculated plan by the enemy. For example, Hollywood frequently gives human qualities to animals in movies to subtly break down natural human modesty and morals.

This conditions young minds to start operating on basic animal instincts like running in "packs" or gangs and demanding blind loyalty instead of acting with human decency.

Social media and modern culture are constantly bombarding you with images of what is "cool," what is beautiful, and what makes you successful. By feeding you these images non-stop, the enemy is training your subconscious mind to be completely "earthbound" and focused only on the physical world.

The devil uses these platforms to plant negative thoughts, insecurities, and worldly desires into your mind, hoping to rewrite your spiritual DNA and take you away from God's design.

But here is the incredible hope: you do not have to be a victim of this programming!

You can have the mind and the attitude of the elect.

God has given you a powerful subconscious mind that can be completely renewed and transformed.

To step into this power, you must first realize that the greatest battle you will ever fight takes place entirely in your mind. Here is how you can fight back and win:

Reprogram your mind with the Word:

You wash away the filthiness of the world by washing your mind with the revealed Word of God. If you intentionally feed your subconscious mind with God's truth, it will replace the corrupted files and bad habits the world tries to install. You don't have to believe everything you think or see online. 2 Corinthians 10:3-7 tells us to "cast down imaginations" and bring every single thought into captivity so that it obeys Christ. If a thought, a video, or a post doesn't bring peace and virtue, hit delete in your mind and cast it out!

Surrender your "free will" to God's will:

Social media tells you that the goal is to "do whatever you want." But the attitude of the elect is realizing that trusting your own free will is a trap. True freedom comes when you say, "Not my will, but God's will be done". By guarding your thoughts and filling your mind with the truth, you build up a strong spiritual immune system that the enemy cannot hack. You are called to be an overcomer, standing out as a bright light in a dark world.

Protecting your subconscious mind from the programming of this modern age requires intentional, daily repetition. Because your subconscious mind runs on habits, repetition leaves an impression that eventually becomes your master.

Here are practical daily habits you can use to guard your mind against the traps of social media and the world's influence:

1. Protect Your "Theta State" Windows (Morning and Evening)

Your brain waves naturally slow down from a highly active state into the relaxed "Alpha and Theta states" right before you fall asleep and right when you wake up. This is the precise time when your subconscious mind is most open and receptive to being programmed.

The Habit: Do not look at social media or the news during these times. Instead, use these quiet moments to take deep breaths, distance yourself from digital distractions, and meditate on God's promises. Follow the pattern of David, who sought God before the dawn and meditated on the Word in the night watches.

2. Apply the Philippians 4:8 Filter

You do not have to believe everything you think, and you certainly do not have to absorb everything you see online. Social media is a constant stream of information that can easily pollute your mind if left unguarded.

63-0901E DESPERATIONS, JEFFERSONVILLE.IN, V-4, N-1, SUNDAY

We know it is true that God will meet a desperate soul. Now, we all know that. But it usually takes something to drive us into that, to that despair, to the desperation. It takes something to do it.

But the church has held on to our religious rhetoric and so called talking about the Message, until it's become so passive, that they don't do anything, they just go through the motions of going to church and perhaps talking the Word, if they do that anymore. But we've talked so much we've lost our passion, we've lost our reality, we've lost our fire for God in our belly and in our hearts. Did you know that all true passion is born out of desperation and anguish. And true passion for Christ comes out of your being immersed in desperation and anguish. Search the Scriptures and you'll find when God set His heart to save his people from a ruinous situation, He would share His own anguish for what God saw happening to His church and to His people. And He would find a praying man and He would take that man and literally baptize Him in anguish.

The Habit: Actively filter your feed use:

PHILIPPIANS 4:8 Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things.

If a post, video, or conversation is not true, honest, just, pure, lovely, or of good report, intentionally scroll past it. Train your mind to say, "I don't want to hear it" or "That doesn't benefit me," so you do not waste your God-given subconscious mind on the world's toxic garbage.

3. Cast Down Digital Imaginations Immediately

Social media is expertly designed to trigger insecurities, fears, and worldly desires. The enemy uses these platforms as "bait" to lure out the weaknesses of your fallen nature.

The Habit: The moment a toxic thought, fearful news story, or impure image crosses your mind. You cannot stop thoughts from coming, but you can stop them from building a nest in your head. You stop a negative thought by instantly replacing it with a positive truth from God's Word (2 Corinthians 10:3-7).

54-1231 EVERLASTING.LIFE.AND.HOW.TO.RECEIVE.IT, JEFF.IN, V-26, N-12, FRI

45 ...ed... You just imagine somebody hates you, once. And they don't hate you, but you imagine they do, and you just keep thinking, "They don't like me." And the first thing you'll be shunning that person, when they haven't done nothing to you. And after while, it become so a reality to you, till you'll actually believe that that person doesn't like you. And you'll might bawl them out or say something to you, for instance your wife, or your husband, or some neighbor, or something like that, when, the person is absolutely innocent of any ill thing. It's because that you just imagine it so, till it become a reality to you.

4. Speak Your Confession Out Loud Faith in your subconscious mind requires active confession to release God's power. If you only read the Word but never speak it, it remains dormant.

The Habit: Instead of repeating the trends, complaints, or fears you see online, explicitly confess your true identity in Christ out loud.

Praying and speaking the Word out loud actually anoints your mind, because God's Word carries its own Spirit and life.

5. Step Away from "Beta" Noise

Constant engagement with screens, scrolling, and online conversations keeps your brain in a fast, highly aroused "Beta" state, which blocks out deep spiritual reflection.

The Habit: Intentionally disconnect from your devices to take a walk in nature or sit quietly. This simple act shifts your brain into a resting "Alpha" state, allowing your mind to decompress, reflect spiritually, and hear from God without the interference of digital noise.

To practically shield our children's minds from the enemy's programming, parents must actively take up their God-given mantle as the spiritual priests of their homes.

1. Engage in Constant, Daily Teaching of the Word

According to the divine pattern in Deuteronomy 6, God commands parents to diligently teach His Word to their children. This cannot be limited to merely attending church; parents must talk about the Word when sitting in the house, walking by the way, and lying down. A highly effective practice is to use the drive home from church to discuss what was just preached, anchoring those lessons while they are still fresh in the children's minds.

When a wise, Christian parent diligently teaches and communicates with their children, there is no reason for those children to grow up foolish.

2. Guard Against "Innocent" Entertainment and Media

Parents must realize that modern entertainment is a primary vehicle for Satan to program the minds of the youth. The enemy uses Hollywood and modern media to strip away natural modesty and condition children's minds for perversion, such as bestiality. What the world presents as innocent animated movies or entertainment is a calculated plan by Satan, even if the worldly creators themselves only think they are providing entertainment. Parents must strictly monitor what their children watch, recognizing it as a direct battle for their subconscious minds.

3. Recognize Their Fallen Nature and Enforce Consequences Parents must view their children through a realistic, biblical lens: without the new birth, children possess a fallen, sinner nature that naturally leans toward disobedience. Parents must avoid loving their children "in the wrong way" by constantly shielding them from their own failures. If parents stifle a child's will too much or refuse to let them fall, the child never learns from their mistakes.

Children must be allowed to experience the consequences of their actions, so they learn obedience and realize the value of their parents' warnings.

4. Channel Their Specific God-Given Talents

Instead of pushing children to conform to the standards of Satan's Eden which dictates that success only comes through prestigious worldly education and careers parents should carefully assess their children's natural abilities. By observing what their children are creative in or naturally good at, parents can safely channel them into those specific areas and trust God to bless their path.

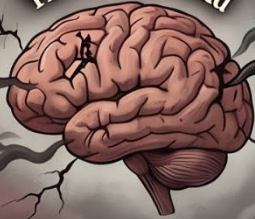

The Battle of the Mind

Restoring Marriage, Family, and the Church

The Fallen Mind

Murmuring

Complaining

The Murmuring Mind

Murmuring and complaining are signs of unbelief that physically and spiritually "dry up" a marriage, inviting the "serpent's bite" into the home.

Neglect as a Spiritual Gateway

Neglecting the spiritual health of a marriage allows the "Serpent" to take advantage of damaged or "bruised" spirits within the family.

Feelings as "Spirits"

Anxiety, guilt, and condemnation are the "fruits of pride" that act as spirits, tormenting the mind and disrupting the peace of the household.

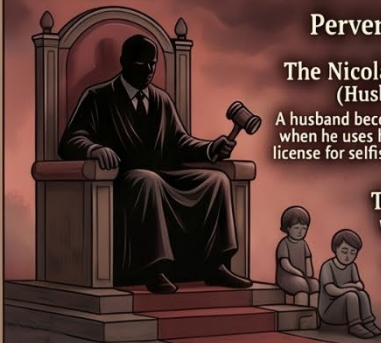

Perverted Roles in Marriage & Family

The Nicolaitan Spirit (Husbands)

A husband becomes a "dictator" when he uses his headship as a license for selfishness and abuse.

The Nagging Wife

A nagging wife is described as an abuser of the home's peace, whose persistent noise reflects a lack of faith and a failure to "heal"

The Destruction of "Holy Seed"

When parents prioritize their own "rights" or self will, they produce a generation that lacks respect for divine law, judges, and parents.

Deception in the Church

FALSE UNITY

Balaam's Doctrine (False Unity)

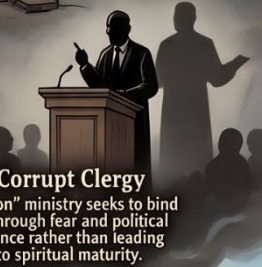

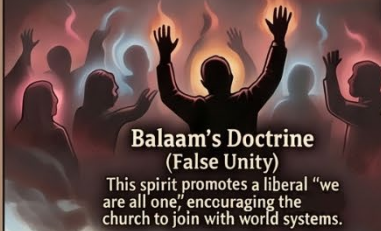

This spirit promotes a liberal "we are all one," encouraging the church to join with world systems.

Emotional Displays vs. The True Word

Deceived churches focus on "feeling clean" or outward emotionalism rather than the "Mind of Christ".

The Corrupt Clergy

A "isolation" ministry seeks to bind people through fear and political preeminence rather than leading them to spiritual maturity.

THE RESTORATION: THE NEW HEART

Renewed State

Stony Heart

Heart of Flesh

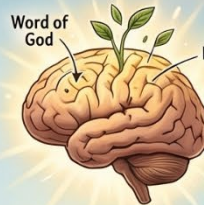

Not my will, but Thy will

Relinquishing Free Moral Agency

True transformation begins when the believer says, "Not my will, but Thy will," choosing God's Word as the absolute over human reasoning.

Reprogramming the Subconscious

The subconscious mind is the "realm of faith"; it must be renewed with the Word to create "seeds" of creative power that command the body and spirit to align with God.

Word of God

Faith

The Stature of a Perfect Man

Restoration is not about legalistic "doing" (works) but about faith in Christ's victory, which restores the "Friendship" of the Word in every area of life.

True Spiritual Maturity
