The Secret Society

MATTHEW 13:34 KJV All these things spake Jesus unto the multitude in parables; and without a parable spake he not unto them: 35 That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, saying, I will open my mouth in parables; I will utter things which have been kept secret from the foundation of the world. 36 Then Jesus sent the multitude away, and went into the house: and his disciples came unto him, saying, Declare unto us the parable of the tares of the field.

The concept of a "mystery society" or "secret society" in relation to Jesus Christ revolves around how divine truth is guarded, veiled from the public, and disclosed exclusively to an initiated inner circle His disciples and His Elect Bride.

The theological definition of the word "mystery" is drawn directly from the concept and operation of a secret society or secret garden.

*Initiation and Trust: I*n a secret society, a person must be called, accepted, and initiated into the group before its secrets are shared.
Only when members are fully trusted are the hidden secrets unveiled to them.

Exclusivity of Revelation: If an individual is not sovereignly called or invited into that specific society, they can never know or comprehend its secrets.

The Fellowship of the Mystery: In Ephesians 3:9, the Apostle Paul speaks of "the fellowship of the mystery, which from the beginning of the world hath been hid in God". This fellowship is reserved for a chosen, separated class of people who are brought into the inner circle of divine understanding. On specific occasions when key revelations broke forth such as Peter's revelation of the Christ in Matthew 16:16 Jesus strictly charged His disciples to keep it hidden and "tell no man that he was Jesus the Christ" (Matthew 16:20)

Jesus' Inner Circle: The Disciples as a "Secret Society"
During His earthly ministry, Jesus functioned with His disciples as an exclusive spiritual group, intentionally withholding deep truths from the religious crowds and denominational leaders of His day:

Speaking in Parables: When the disciples asked Jesus why He spoke to the multitudes in parables (Matthew 13:10), He explicitly stated: "Because it is given unto you to know the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven, but to them it is not given".

Veiling Truth from the Public: Jesus spoke the wisdom of God in a mystery so that the Elect who are ordained to catch the revelation would understand, while the rest would remain confused and blind.

From Servants to Friends: In John 15:15, Jesus defined the intimate boundary of this inner society: "Henceforth I call you not servants; for the servant knoweth not what his lord doeth: but I have called you friends; for all things that I have heard of my Father I have made known unto you". This transition highlights that true friends do not keep secrets from one another.

Separation from Religious "Lodges": The possession and spiritual understanding of these unveiled mysteries are what separate the true Church from human denominational organizations and religious "lodges.

Whispering Love Secrets: Revelation is not merely academic; it is spiritual intimacy. As Christ communicates with His Bride, He is described as making love to the Church by whispering His hidden secrets directly to Her heart

The Supernatural Element
Even when scriptural mysteries are recorded in text or spoken messages, a supernatural element remains encoded within them. This supernatural element acts as a divine filter, keeping carnal minds in the dark while opening the eyes of the spiritual sheep.

The word "mystery" (mysterion) comes from the idea of a secret society or a secret garden. The Greek word mystērion (μυστήριον) means a sacred secret or a hidden plan that was previously concealed by God but has now been revealed to His people. Root Word: It derives from the Greek verb myēin, meaning "to shut the mouth" or "to close the eyes" (the first letter, mu, suggests closing the lips)

During His earthly ministry, Jesus functioned with His disciples as an exclusive spiritual group. He intentionally hid deep truths from the crowds and religious leaders of His day. When the disciples asked Jesus why He spoke to the crowds in parables, He explained that parables were designed to hide the truth from the public while revealing it to His inner circle.

Parables and symbols allow God to state the truth publicly while keeping its deeper meaning hidden from those who are not ordained to catch the revelation.

Intimacy with Christ

- Under the Seventh Seal and the end-time Message, Christ communicates with His Bride by whispering His hidden secrets directly to Her heart.
- Even when scriptural mysteries are printed in books or recorded on sermon tapes, a supernatural element remains encoded inside them.
- This supernatural element acts as a divine filter.
- It leaves carnal minds in confusion while giving spiritual insight and understanding to the Elect.

The glory of concealment

DEUTERONOMY 29:29 The secret things belong unto the LORD our God: but those things which are revealed belong unto us and to our children for ever, that we may do all the words of this law."

What is a Mystery?

A mystery is Scripture, is a previously hidden Truth now Divinely revealed, but (which is) a supernatural element still remains despite the revelation. If I have the wrong seed the supernatural element remains despite the prophet's revelation. The supernatural element ensures revelation is seasonal, when the people are ready to receive it. It also serves blind and separates the true seed from the non-seed. The only way to separate the true seed from the non-seed is to have that supernatural element.

Deuteronomy 29:29 establishes one of the most fundamental principles regarding divine knowledge, human limitations, and the mechanics of revelation:

- In scriptural study and message hermeneutics, this single verse defines how God manages His infinite wisdom.
- God defines how hidden mysteries pass into the hands of the Elect, and why revelation is imparted to the Church.
- The scriptures establish one of the most fundamental principles regarding divine knowledge, human limitations, and the mechanics of revelation:
- In scriptural study and message hermeneutics, this single verse defines how God manages His infinite wisdom.
- God defines how hidden mysteries pass into the hands of the Elect, and why revelation is imparted to the Church.

The Divine Separation: Secret Things vs. Revealed Things

God in His self-existing state (Elohim) holds all wisdom, foreknowledge, and counsels within His own infinite mind. These are the "secret things" that no human intellect, science, or theological training can search out or discover by self-effort.

PROVERBS 25:2 It is the glory of God to conceal a thing: but the honour of kings is to search out a matter.

God receives glory by veiling His truth in symbols, parables, and hidden language so that human wisdom cannot bypass His sovereign will.

The Supernatural Element

Even when revealed truths are recorded in message books and sermon tapes, a supernatural element remains veiled within the text. This supernatural element serves to separate intellectual make-believers from those who possess an eternal spiritual gene. See, the Bible contains previously hidden truths divinely revealed, must take a prophet. But even though you have the revelation in books and tape form, they still contain a supernatural element. That supernatural element is to divide the sheep and the goat. And it's also to stop the foolish from looking to the books and the tapes to be perfected. Perfection must come through the Fivefold, where there's a place that GOD can take these messages and send it around the world.

The local church is for the witness of the immediate area by allowing the pastor to teach the people so well, that they themselves in their communities can be light and testimonies.

"It Is the Glory of God to Conceal a Thing"

God receives glory by veiling His deep thoughts, redemptive plan, and scriptural truth in mysteries, symbols, and parables. God deliberately conceals truth so that human logic, scientific ambition, and denominational pride cannot uncover it by self-effort.

MATTHEW 11:25 KJV At that time Jesus answered and said, I thank thee, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because thou hast hid these things from the wise and prudent, and hast revealed them unto babes. 26 Even so, Father: for so it seemed good in thy sight. 27 All things are delivered unto me of my Father: and no man knoweth the Son, but the Father; neither knoweth any man the Father, save the Son, and he to whomsoever the Son will reveal him.

Jesus thanked the Father for hiding these things from the "wise and prudent" and revealing them unto babes. Jesus spoke in parables specifically so that the secrets of the Kingdom would be hid from the self-righteous, wise, and prudent, but revealed unto babes who are taught by the Spirit.

The Wisdom of God vs. Hidden Wisdom

The Scriptures contain two distinct levels of divine wisdom

1 CORINTHIANS 2:6 Howbeit we speak wisdom among them that are perfect: yet not the wisdom of this world, nor of the princes of this world, that come to nought: 7 But we speak the wisdom of God in a mystery, even the hidden wisdom, which God ordained before the world unto our glory:

The Wisdom of God: Truths revealed across the Seven Church Ages and the restoration of lost doctrines or loose ends.

The Hidden Wisdom of God: The unwritten, deep secrets sealed under the Seventh Seal and the Seven Thunders.

God hid this wisdom before the foundation of the world specifically for our glory. By concealing truths until His appointed season, God proves that no human mind can engineer divine revelation, bringing mankind to the realization that there is only one true God who holds absolute sovereignty over all mysteries.

Proverbs 25:2 states: "It is the glory of God to conceal a thing: but the honour of kings is to search out a matter." In light of scriptural hermeneutics and end-time revelation, this verse unveils the divine protocol by which Almighty God manages His infinite wisdom, veils Himself from human pride, and imparts His hidden treasures to an elected class of believers.

"The Honour of Kings Is to Search Out a Matter" shifts from God's concealment to the high privilege granted to the Elect. Who Are the "Kings"? The "kings" mentioned here are not earthly political rulers, but the royal priesthood the adopted sons and daughters of God who form the Bride of Jesus Christ. The true honour bestowed upon believers is not human fame, denominational titles, or worldly wealth, but being granted spiritual access to search out the hidden treasures in the Word.
God honours the Elect by opening their spiritual eyes to see and understand what prophets and righteous men of past ages longed to see but could not. Searching out a matter does not mean applying carnal scholarship or human philosophy. It means coming under the guidance of the Holy Spirit to discern the spiritual patterns, divine laws, and revealed concepts hidden within the Scriptures.

God's Filtration by the Anointed Ministry (Malachi 2:7):
MALACHI 2:7 KJV For the priest's lips should keep knowledge, and they should seek the law at his mouth: for he is the messenger of the LORD of hosts.

Proverbs 16:23 states that "the heart of the wise teacheth his mouth, and addeth learning to his lips". God (the Wise One) teaches His mouth (the prophet), the lips are the true five-fold ministry who keep and dispense that knowledge to the local assemblies.

PSALM 25:14 KJV The secret of the LORD is with them that fear him; and he will shew them his covenant.
Accessing the 'secret counsel of God' requires deep reverence, spiritual modesty, and an absolute respect for God's vindicated Word. We learn that expositions really can only be done by prophets. We can do expositions after a prophet has given us his understanding of God's understanding.

Let's look at some scriptures regards the secrets of God:
ISAIAH 48:6 Thou hast heard, see all this; and will not ye declare it? I have shewed thee new things from this time, even hidden things, and thou didst not know them. 7 They are created now, and not from the beginning; even before the day when thou heardest them not; lest thou shouldest say, Behold, I knew them.

MATTHEW 13:35 That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, saying, I will open my mouth in parables; I will utter things which have been kept secret from the foundation of the world.

ROMANS 16:25 Now to him that is of power to stablish you according to my gospel, and the preaching of Jesus Christ, according to the revelation of the mystery, which was kept secret since the world began, 26 But now is made manifest, and by the scriptures of the prophets, according to the commandment of the everlasting God, made known to all nations for the obedience of faith:
EPHESIANS 3:4 Whereby, when ye read, ye may understand my knowledge in the mystery of Christ 5 Which in other ages was not made known unto the sons of men, as it is now revealed unto his holy apostles and prophets by the Spirit;

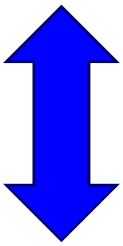

Ministers are going to look at this same Message and come up with a different explanation.

PROVERBS 25:2 states: "It is the glory of God to conceal a thing: but the honour of kings is to search out a matter."
The different understandings are because there's a supernatural element in there that we cannot change. Also, see Matthew 11:25.

Laws of Vertical and Horizontal

What Are the Laws of Vertical and Horizontal?
In Bible study and Message teaching, God's divine order works through two spatial directions:

Vertical (straight up and down)
EXODUS 33:11 And the LORD spake unto Moses face to face, as a man speaketh.

The Law of Vertical (God to His Prophet)
The Law of Vertical describes direct, top-down communication from God in Heaven down to a chosen prophet on earth. God does not use a direct vertical line with every individual lay member to give new doctrines. Instead, He speaks vertically exclusively to His vindicated prophets. Revelation comes straight down from God to the prophet (Top-Down Channel) through "Thus Saith the Lord," divine visions, and the Pillar of Fire.

AMOS 3:7 Surely the Lord GOD will do nothing, but he revealeth his secret unto his servants the prophets.

The Danger of Private Claims: When an individual member claims, "God spoke to me directly," or "God showed me a new revelation" to change church doctrine, they are stepping out of God's order. Claiming an independent vertical connection leads to self-exaltation, personal opinions, and religious fanaticism.

The Law of Horizontal (Prophet to Ministry to Believers)
Once God speaks vertically to His prophet, everything else moves horizontally across the church.

Truth travels sideways from the prophet to the five-fold ministry (apostles, prophets, evangelists, pastors, and teachers). These ministers take the revealed message, teach it, and help the local church put it into practice.

Believers as "Dots on a Line": On the horizontal level, every believer stands as an equal member within the body of Christ. We are all "dots on a line" working together, serving one another, and keeping order in our homes and churches.

The Law of Representation: We experience our relationship with God horizontally by receiving the leadership He sends. Jesus said in John 13:20, "He that receiveth whomsoever I send receiveth me."

Church and Family Order: The horizontal plane governs daily Christian living. It guides how husbands lead their families, how wives support their husbands, and how believers respect local church pastors and elders.

How Secret Things become Revealed is through the Law of Revelation (Amos 3:7)

A central theme across the message studies is that God has a fixed divine process for turning secret things into revealed things. Man cannot pray or fast secrets out of the Bible through carnal ambition, nor can denominational seminaries decipher them.

The Revealed Inheritance: When God unlocks a secret, it ceases to be an unapproachable mystery for the Elect; it becomes "revealed things" that belong eternally to the believer and their spiritual lineage (Deuteronomy 29:29).

A Prophet is the Secret to the Secrets of God: God's mouth on earth is a vindicated prophet; the hidden secrets of the written Word are never unlocked through human scholarship. God reveals His secret thoughts exclusively through His chosen prophetic ministry (Amos 3:7).

In Matthew 11:25—27, Jesus spoke in parables specifically so that the secrets of the Kingdom would be hid from the self-righteous, wise, and prudent, but revealed unto babes who are taught by the Spirit.

Building doctrines

ISAIAH 28:9 KJV Whom shall he teach knowledge? and whom shall he make to understand doctrine? them that are weaned from the milk, and drawn from the breasts. 10 For precept must be upon precept, precept upon precept; line upon line, line upon line; here a little, and there a little:

JUDE 12 These are spots in your feasts of charity, when they feast with you, feeding themselves without fear: clouds they are without water, carried about of winds; trees whose fruit withereth, without fruit, twice dead, plucked up by the roots; 13 Raging waves of the sea, foaming out their own shame; wandering stars, to whom is reserved the blackness of darkness for ever.

59-0823 PALMERWORM.LOCUST.CANKERWORM.CATERPILLAR

19 But, yet, a church without a doctrine is just like a jellyfish; it has no backbone.

Preaching doctrine transforms human thinking so that a believer's mind lines up with God's definitions. Outward conduct and church order cannot be forced through fear, shame, or legalistic threats; doctrine must shape conduct.

Sound teaching provides spiritual enlightenment that changes how a person calculates reality. It waters the desert areas of the human mind, silences a condemning conscience, and turns spiritual wilderness into a fruitful garden.

In scriptural ministry and end-time revelation, preaching sound doctrine (didache) is essential because doctrine is the bone structure of the Word the foundational system of instruction that formats the mind, establishes spiritual life, shapes outward conduct, and guard believers against deception. Doctrine "instruction" or "system of teaching") is not a random collection of memorized statements. Instead, it is a unified structure of divine truth designed to format the human mind, establish godly conduct, and align the believer with the revealed will of God.

To build sound doctrine without falling into spiritual error or legalism, one must observe specific biblical laws, dispensational boundaries, and hermeneutical principles. Building scriptural doctrine requires moving far beyond human logic, denominational traditions, and isolated quotations. Preaching quotes or isolated statements without establishing true doctrine leaves believers spiritually immature and easily tossed by religious confusion.

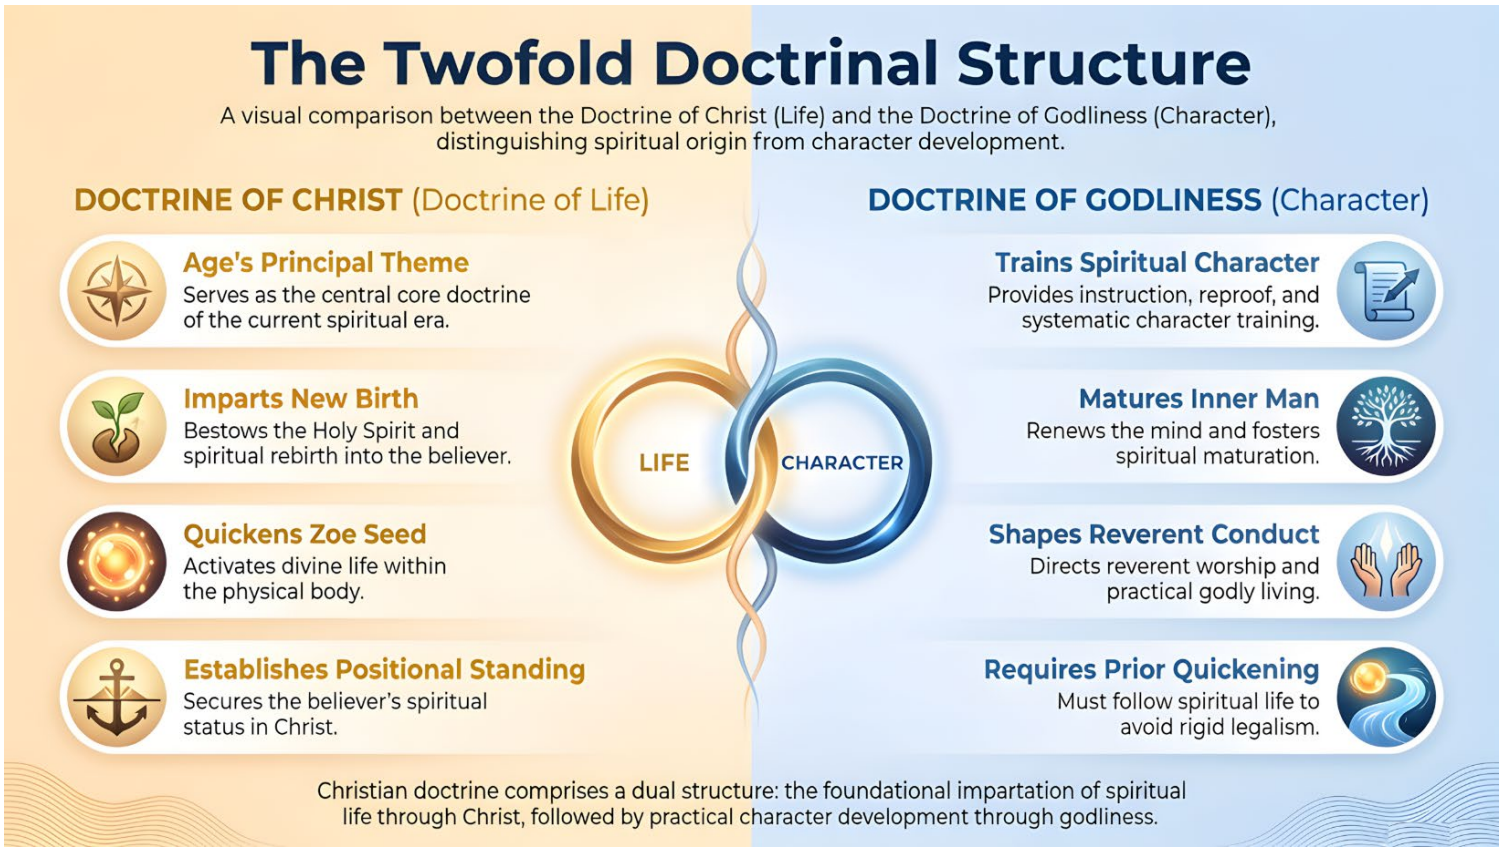

65-0725M THE.ANOINTED.ONES.AT.THE.END.TIME

91 .... I don't care what it is. If it's contrary to the written Word for this hour, it's a lie. God will have nothing to do with it, no matter how sincere, how educated, how smart, how true it sounds, how reasonable it sounds, if it's contrary to the Word of this hour. We'll get into that a little deeper in a few minutes, time permits us. If we don't, we'll take it up again tonight.

The Twofold Doctrinal Purpose: Life and Godliness

According to the book of Peter, every true message contains a twofold doctrinal structure that must be rightly divided:

2 PETER 1:3 According as his divine power hath given unto us all things that pertain unto life and godliness, through the knowledge of him that hath called us to glory and virtue:

Imparting the New Birth (The Doctrine of Life): The primary purpose of preaching the Doctrine of Christ for any given age is to bring quickening life (Zoe) to the elect seed.
Quickening the Seed: A heart cannot be established without doctrine, and doctrine cannot exist without teaching. Preaching the specific principal theme of the age (the revelation of the Godhead in the Bride age) acts as the "teaching rain" that opens the door to the Kingdom and imparts the baptism of the Holy Spirit.

Sound doctrine confirms the believer's inheritance and eternal security in Christ. True spiritual understanding of sound doctrine is the evidence of a quickened, regenerated soul.

Transforming the Mind: Preaching doctrine transforms human thinking into the mind of Christ (Romans 12:2).

Doctrine Shapes Conduct: Outward conduct and church order cannot be produced by force, fear, or legalistic rules; doctrine must shape conduct. If a minister preaches the Doctrine of Godliness (rules, character, conduct) without the listener first receiving the quickening life of the Doctrine of Christ, it results in carnal legalism, religious hypocrisy, and dead works. Teaching brings spiritual enlightenment so that a believer willingly arranges their life, marriage, dress, and responsibilities to honour God.

Cleansing the Mind: The preaching of sound doctrine acts as a spiritual washing that silences a condemning conscience and turns the "wilderness of the mind" into a fruitful garden.

Protecting Against Deception and False Doctrines: A primary duty of the five-fold ministry is to teach sound doctrine so that believers are no longer children, tossed to and fro, and carried about with every wind of doctrine (Ephesians 4:14).

Exposing Error: Sound doctrine acts as a spiritual filter, exposing false teachers, denominational traditions, and "doctrines of demons".
1 TIMOTHY 4:1 Now the Spirit speaketh expressly, that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits, and doctrines of devils.

Unifying the Assembly: Unity in the local assembly does not come through social programs or compromising fellowship; it comes through unity of the faith and doctrine. Preaching true doctrine separates the wheat from the chaff and keeps the church from being seduced by modern denominational trends.

Perfecting the Bride unto Full Maturity: Preaching doctrine equips the saints and builds up the body of Christ until believers reach full spiritual stature.
EPHESIANS 4:11 And he gave some, apostles; and some, prophets; and some, evangelists; and some, pastors and teachers; 12 For the perfecting of the saints, for the work of the ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ: 13 Till we all come in the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a perfect man, unto the measure of the stature of the fulness of Christ:

Saving the Hearers, as Paul instructed Timothy, taking heed unto sound doctrine saves both the minister and those who hear him.
1 TIMOTHY 4:16 Take heed unto thyself, and unto the doctrine; continue in them: for in doing this thou shalt both save thyself, and them that hear thee.

Mechanics Before Dynamics: Preaching sound doctrine sets the spiritual mechanics in order. Only when the mechanics of Word, conduct, and order are correctly aligned can the supernatural dynamics of the Holy Spirit fall upon the Church.

The Fundamental Rules of Building Scriptural Doctrine
A fundamental law of scriptural study is that an isolated statement or quote is NOT a doctrine. A primary mistake in studying the Scriptures or message sermons is attempting to construct an entire doctrine around a single, isolated statement. A single quote or verse, taken out of context, can easily be misunderstood, twisted, or turned into a man-made tradition.

The Danger of Isolated Quotes
A major prophet or scripture writer often makes broad macro-statements. If a student takes one single quote or isolated verse and builds a doctrine around it without connecting it to the rest of the Word, it leads to spiritual confusion and dead-end interpretations.

Isolated statements taken out of context can be weaponized to prove contradictory ideas. A doctrine is never formed by a single quote or statement. True doctrine is constructed by gathering complementary statements and scriptures "here a little, and there a little" and weaving them together until every apparent conflict disappears in complete harmony. Preaching doctrine synthesizes complementary scriptures and revealed concepts across the entire Word, resolving apparent text contradictions and presenting an absolute, unshakeable standard.

For precept must be upon precept, precept upon precept; line upon line, line upon line; here a little, and there a little." (Isaiah 28:10)
Doctrine is never built on a single text; it is constructed by synthesizing complementary passages across the entire body of Scripture.
True spiritual growth occurs as revealed concepts build upon one another like living cells forming a complete organism. A true doctrine connects seamlessly with all other established biblical truths.

Hermeneutics vs. Exegesis

Hermeneutics is the system of rules and laws used to interpret Scripture correctly. Hermeneutics serves as the "rulebook" of Bible study. Without applying divine hermeneutics, reading the written text produces intellectual guesswork and religious confusion.

Exegesis is the actual practice of pulling out the true, original meaning from the text based on those rules.

Vindicated Revelation Over Human Rationale

Scriptural faith rests upon God's vindicated Word, not on human philosophy, creeds, or scientific theories. God interprets His own Word by bringing it to fulfillment through a vindicated prophet, while the five-fold ministry (apostles and teachers) formats those revealed concepts into structured doctrines for the Church.

2 PETER 1:20–21 "Knowing this first, that no prophecy of the scripture is of any private interpretation. For the prophecy came not in old time by the will of man: but holy men of God spake as they were moved by the Holy Ghost."

64-0415 CHRIST.IS.IDENTIFIED.THE.SAME.IN.ALL.GENERATIONS

96 Now, watch, so you'll see whether we're right, or not, in these thoughts we're thinking.

Now, see, each one of us would have things, each one of us interpret the Bible different. The Methodist says, "It should be read like this." The Catholic says, "Like this." The Lutheran, "Like this." The Pentecostals, "Like this."

The "Three Musts" of Hermeneutics (What NOT to Do)

When handling the Word of God, there are three absolute prohibitions that must be observed. Violating any of these three rules throws the entire Bible into spiritual chaos. To build genuine, unshakeable doctrine, three fundamental mechanics must be followed:

You Must Not Misinterpret the Word: Misinterpretation occurs when human rationale adds to, subtracts from, or alters the plain meaning of the text. The Word needs no private interpretation for human opinions; it means exactly what it says.

You Must Not Misplace the Word: Misplacing occurs when a verse, quote, or event is removed from its structural context in God's overall plan.

You Must Not Dislocate the Word: Dislocation happens when a believer takes a practice, ordinance, or blessing from a past age and forces it into a current dispensation where God is operating under higher light. When a person applies truth or promises from one dispensation into a completely different age it is sin.

Laws to Observe in Doctrines

Scripture operates under unchangeable spiritual laws. True doctrine must always observe these divine principles.

The Law of Unchangeability: God never changes His methods, nature, or principles (Malachi 3:6; Ecclesiastes 3:14). True doctrine must always trace back to an established biblical pattern.

The Law of Representation: God acts through chosen representatives. Humankind was legally represented in Adam; the elect are legally represented and justified in Christ. Furthermore, receiving God's vindicated messenger is legally equivalent to receiving God Himself. "Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that receiveth whomsoever I send receiveth me; and he that receiveth me receiveth him that sent me." (John 13:20)

The Law of Imputation: A divine accounting principle where righteousness or guilt is legally credited to an account. Christ took the believer's guilt at Calvary, and Christ's absolute righteousness is imputed to the elect.

The Law of Reproduction (Genetics): All life reproduces strictly after its own kind through a seed (Genesis 1:11).
The New Birth is not an incarnation (God occupying an foreign host), but a spiritual reproduction where God imparts His own genetic life seed (Zoe) into the believer's soul.

The Law of Contrast: God allows evil, darkness, and human fallibility to exist as a necessary contrast to reveal His attributes of grace, light, holiness, and redemption.

The Law of Light (Reflection vs. Refraction)
Reflection: Unbent Light strikes a major prophet (mirror) to display the exact image of the indwelling Father.
Refraction: Unbent Light passes through seven church-age messengers (prisms), manifesting as seven distinct age-refractions.

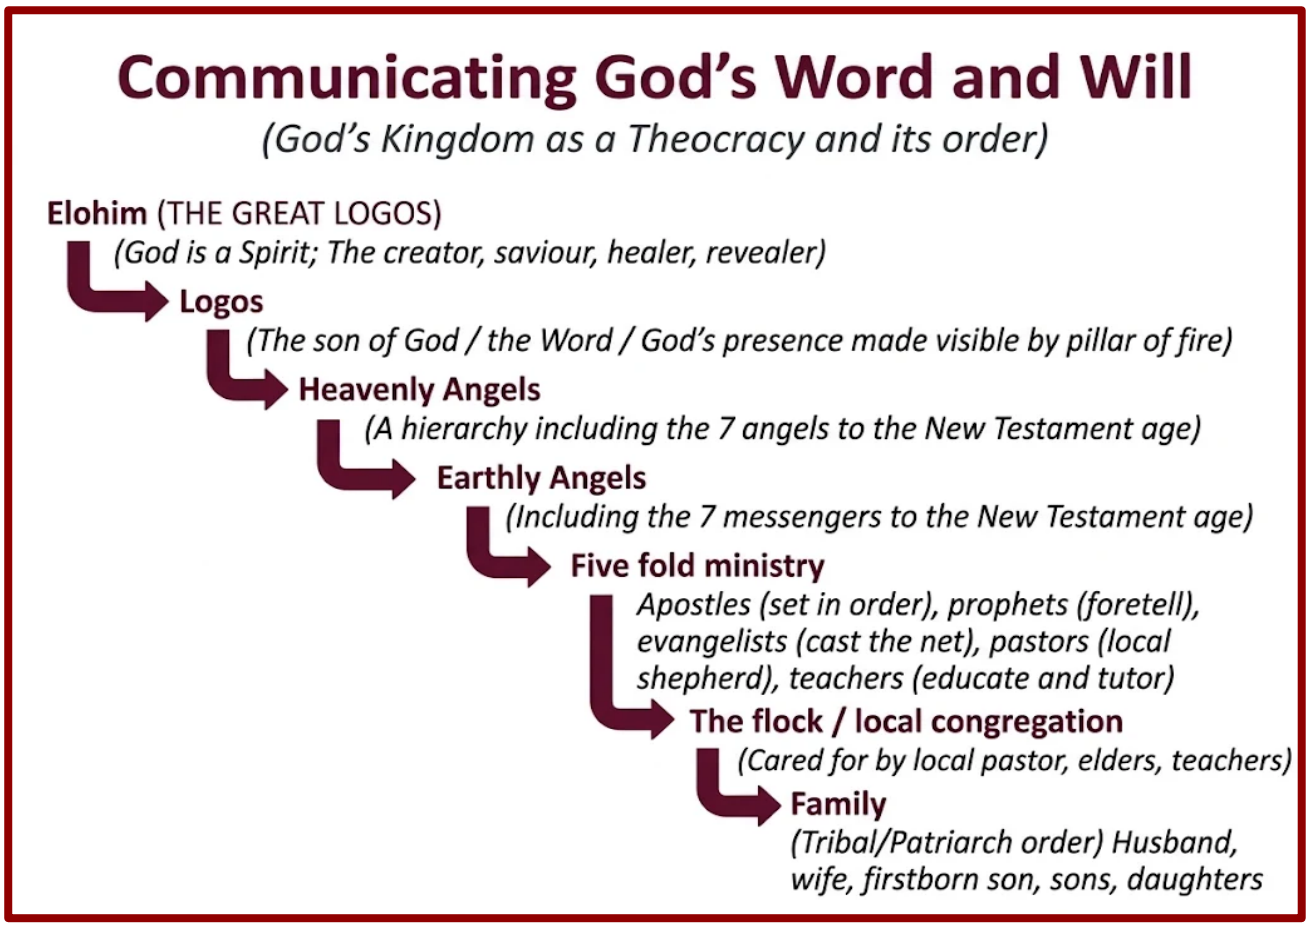

The Law of Faith (The Higher Spiritual Law): Faith is a spiritual law operating in the heart that commands natural physical elements to obey the confessed Word of God (Mark 11:23–24).

Natural Laws as Types of Spiritual Realities: Physical creation, genetics, atomic structures, and physics are exact natural types of unseen spiritual laws.
"For the invisible things of him from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even his eternal power and Godhead; so that they are without excuse..." (Romans 1:20)

The Apostolic & Ministerial Order of Doctrine
The Church is built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, with Jesus Christ as the chief cornerstone.

EPHESIANS 2:20 KJV And are built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ himself being the chief corner stone;

EPHESIANS 4:11 KJV And he gave some, apostles; and some, prophets; and some, evangelists; and some, pastors and teachers; 12 For the perfecting of the saints, for the work of the ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ:

Dispensational Enlightenment

Dispensational Alignment & Progressive Light
Building doctrine requires discerning dispensational changes and recognizing the progressive nature of divine revelation. Brother Branham like all other prophets did not everything. This revelation and understanding were given to prophets according to the will and time of the Eternal God.

John announces the Lamb of God when the anointing was present
JOHN 1:29 The next day John seeth Jesus coming unto him, and saith, Behold the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world.

When the anointing left John he asked this question
MATTHEW 11:2 KJV Now when John had heard in the prison the works of Christ, he sent two of his disciples, 3 And said unto him, Art thou he that should come, or do we look for another? 4 Jesus answered and said unto them, Go and shew John again those things which ye do hear and see:

Human element also seen in the lives and experiences of Brother Branham, Elijah when human thoughts, emotions, failings, aspirations, hopes, desires and ambitions sometime interfere with the divine program.

Brother Branham ministered under different anointings and different scriptures:

- Moses Anointing
- Elijah Anointing
- Joshua Anointing
- Son of Man Anointing.
- He was star to the age
- Prophet Messenger

He served under different Lights:

- Starlight = Under this he has Partial Understanding
- Moonlight = Moonlight represents the Bride (the True Church) and the promised "evening light", the ministry of restoration. It acts as a "teaching rain" (the former rain) meant to establish and ground the believers back into the original foundation and faith of the early Pentecostal church. Moonlight serves as the bridge between starlight and sunlight.
- Sunlight = This is the SOM ministry that comes to correct the errors
